

Burlington. — Samuel Thomas, a 13-year-old Burlington boy, was sentenced to the Vermont industrial school at Vergennes for the remainder of his minority by Judge Jed P. Ladd in city court. Thomas went into the home of Edward Summer and while the family was sleeping stole an Elkin 17 jeweled gold watch, the property of Mr. Summer, and sold it to a chum for 27 cents. The watch was recovered. Thomas will remain in the school until Nov. 19, 1920.

Clipped By:

newbury

Sat, Nov 9, 2019