

No Outsiders Wanted at State Institutions for the Present

Judge John E. Weeks of Middlebury, director of state institutions, today made the following order:

"Visiting day is hereby suspended temporarily at the following Vermont institutions because of the existence in the state of so many cases of Spanish influenza: State prison, Windsor; house of correction, Rutland; Vermont industrial school, Vergennes; state hospital for insane, Waterbury; school for feeble-minded, Brandon."

Clipped By:

newbury

Sun, Nov 10, 2019